Article 3. General Rules

3.1 Decision making

Felis Britannica decision-making forums are the Annual General Assembly (AGA), and the Executive Committee.

3.2 Organisational and Financial Year

Felis Britannica's organisational and financial year is the period from January 1st to December 31st.

3.3 Changes to the rules and statutes

- a) In instances where a situation is not adequately catered for in these Statutes, then a decision should be deferred until the next AGA. In urgent situations a decision may be taken by the Executive Committee and shall be ratified at the next AGA.
- b) In order that changes to the Felis Britannica Statutes be adopted, an absolute majority at an AGA shall be required.
- c) Changes to the Statutes are effective immediately on a probationary basis, and require ratification at the following AGA. Ratification need only be put to a vote if any formal objection is received from a Member Club during the probationary period, otherwise ratification is automatic. Any objection must be submitted, in writing, as a formal proposal for the AGA.
- d) Rules that have been voted through at an AGA become effective immediately, unless otherwise agreed at the time.
- e) For changes to all other rules and national additions to FIFe rules a simple majority shall agree the decision.
- f) Felis Britannica, the Member Clubs and the individual members shall be bound by the decisions of FIFe.

g) Other amendments

- i) Any amendments/additions to FIFe Statutes and Rules shall be incorporated into those of Felis Britannica automatically, and do not require approval of the AGA.
- ii) The Executive Committee may rephrase articles in the Statutes and/or Rules where the intent remains the same.

h) In the case of a conflict between the Statutes and Rules of Felis Britannica and FIFe, the latter shall take precedent.

3.4 In all voting, should the result be a tie, the decision shall be that which ensures the status quo shall prevail.
